Candlestick Newsletter

These Candlestick Patterns are just A VERY FEW of those formed in August/September 2009 so you can see the results in the following weeks. Some stocks go up, some do not. Some are influenced by the overall market. This information should be used as an aid to finding stocks you want to buy, but should always be used along with other technical indicators such as Volume, Momentum, Relative Strength, MACD, and many others.

This is not a recommendation by eJapaneseCandles.com to buy any stock. That decision is totally yours.

Columns: DATE: The date the pattern was detected or confirmed, STOCK: The name of the Company, PATTERN: The name of the Candlestick Pattern detected, PRICE: The closing price on that date, VOLUME: The volume that date compared to recent volume, EXCHANGE: The stock exchange where the stock is listed, CODE: The stock code.
